POLO.

Match Contest Between Teams of the Wabbaquassett and Buffalo Clubs.

INTERESTING EXHIBITION OF THE SPORT.

The Buffaloes the Winners in Four Straight Games.

[SY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

Burralo, N. Y., Oct. 4, 1879.
Since the courtoous but firm declination of the Since the courtoous but firm declination of the Westchester Polo Club to play a return match with the Buffalo Club this season the latter organization, with a view of developing and advancing polo interests, exerted itself to bring about a match with the Wabbaquassett, Club, of Woodstock, Conn. The readers of the Herand are already aware that these efforts have been successful, and the friends and admirers of polo in Buffalo therefore have had the privilege of witnessing the only real match game. rivilege of witnessing the only real match game America this season. The secretary of the Buffalo Club, Mr. Thomas Cary, was directed to open a cor respondence with the Woodstock Club. The letters that passed between the two clubs were of a very friendly and cordial nature, and the Woodstock players agreed to send a team of four to play a match game with a similar team of the Buffaices, providing the latter would furnish ponies for the visitors. This offer was duly accepted. It should be distinctly understood that the Buffalo ng the Woodstocks to play and very readily ceding to their request to provide ponies. To the Buffalo Club, therefore, belongs the credit for the match, and it may not be out of place, at this time, to give the many readers of the Henald interested in the game of pole a few facts concerning the pro-

As is well known, no other athletic organization in the country has met so many discouragements. Early in the season that it the Early in the season two of the new members met with severe accidents. Then came the lamentable young player. For a short time it seemed as though polo in Buffalo had suffered a death blow. People failed to understand that the accidents in each case were such as might easily have happened in ordinary horseback riding, and indiscriminately condemned the vigorous and healthful game as involving too much risk and danger; but the active members of the club held a totally different view, and, after a decent interval, resumed their practice games, transferring the scene of the contests to "The Front," a broad stevation included in the Park system, and commanding a magnificent view of Lake Eric, the Niagara River and the Canada ahore. From that time to the present

The sides were as follows:—Woodstock (blues)—
Mr. E A. Bowen, captain; Mr. A. D. Chandler, Mr.

G. W. Bowen and Mr. L. A. Chandler. Buffalo reds)—Dr. N. R. Hopkins, captain; Dr. Charles Cary, Mr. B. C. Rumsey and Mr. J. N. Sestcherd.
Mr. Thomas Cary was selected umpire. The first game was started at eight minutos past four o'clock, Mr. Seatcherd and Mr. A. D. Chandler charging from the north end. In the race to the bail Mr. Seatcherd outstripped Mr. Chandler, but they both missed. Mr. Seatcherd then got in the first blow. Dr. Cary next gave it a tap, and, in a twinkle, Mr. Ramsey sent it spinning between the flags. The ball was never hit by the blues, owing to the rapidity and skill with which the reds entered upon the aport.

ball was never hit by the blues, owing to the rapidity and skill with which the reds entered upon the sport.

The second game was another very brief one. Messra. Scatcherd and Clarence Bowen charged, and the latter and Mr. A. D. Chandler reached the ball ahead of their opponent. Neither were successful in their efforts to put the sphere in motion, and before the others could come to the rescue Mr. Scatcherd by a series of fine clips had carried the ball to and through the goal.

Mr. Rumesy and Mr. Clarence Bowen led off in the third contest and the first named raised the white globe from its central position. His opponent struck if in the air, synding it back where it was lost to Mr. Scatcherd, he driving it off to the end near the south goal. It was knocked in bounds by Mr. A. D. Chandler, and a fight at close quarters ensued. Finally, it was conxed out by Mr. Rumsey and started toward the the goal. Dr. Hopkins attemped to knock it home, but the ball flew outside, just grazing the flagstaff. Being again hit inside by Mr. Chandler the ball was taken by Dr. Hopkins and driven up the cast side, across to the ladies' pavilion and down to the southwest corner, where it rolled off the end. Once more Mr. Chandler turned the ball, and his companions forced it well toward the centre of the field. There Dr. Cary came to the rescue and made a brilliant run toward the goal, but he failed to strike square, and the ball whitzed by the flags on the outside. Starting again Mr. Scatcherd drove the ball in the direction of the pavilion and lost it to Mr. Louis Chandler, who turned it skilfully toward the centre field. The reds then recovered the ball and were not interrupted until near the goal. An exciting brush took piace and Mr. Scatcherd was obliged to put it off the end. The time of this game was 12 minutes.

Att-r fresh mounts the charge for the fourth game was 12 minutes.

Att-r fresh mounts the charge for the fourth game came next by Dr. Hopkins. The time of this game was 12 minutes.

Attr frees mounts the charge for the fourth game was made by Dr. Cary and Clarence Bowen, the former capturing the ball. After a short struggle it was knocked out of bounds by the reds. Then it was played over the field, the blues making a good showing. After being knocked off ends and out of bounds a dozen or more times, the reds succeeded in driving the ball near the blues' goal, when, after a vigorous, but fruitless defence, it was put home by Mr. Scatherd. This spirited contest lasted ten minutes, and decided the match in favor of the Buffalos.

minutes, and decided the match in favor of the Buffalos.

EXHIBITION CAMES.

After some consultation the two clubs agreed to split up and play some exhibition games with mixed teams. Sides were made up as follows: Blues—Dr. Hopkins, Mr. Scatcherd, Mr. Ubarles H. Williams, of the itufialos; Mr. & A. Bowen and Mr. L. A. Chamiler, of the Wabbaquascetts. Reds—Dr. Charles Cary, Mr. Thomas Cary, Mr. Brauley D. Sweet, of the Buffalos; Mr. C. W. Bewen and Mr. A. D. Chaudler, or the Wabbaquascetts, Mr. Rumsey officiated as umpire in the first game, The Messrs. Bowen charged and Mr. E. A. Howen won, For some time the blues kept the ball at the north end of the field, where it was frequently put oves the line. Dr. Cary made a brilliant run from one end of the field of the other, and led an acciding chase outside and around the south goal, then up the east side and aeross the field. There the blues took the ball and carried it into a good position for Mr. Seatherd to make the winning stroke at the north goal. Time, Il minutes. In the second game Dr. Cary beat Mr. Williams on the charge. He then made another splendid run, and his side fought hard for victory, but after five minutes they saw the ball knocked through the goal by Mr. Williams for the blues. The third and last game of the day was a string chimax to the sport. It lasted twenty minutes, and was fiercely contested. The players changed horses frequently, and the struggle was characterized by unusually good playing. The reds seemed determined to win if there was any virtue in muscle and skill, and did some very sharp work, but in spite of their efforts they were at last defeated, the decisive stroke for the blues being made by Mr. Scatherd.

Scatherd.

The Woodstock poloists are deserving of much credit for their pluck in coming here to encounter the redoubtable Buffalos, and one result of the match is that the visitors have had valuable experience and gained some useful points as to vigorous and scientific playing. At the close they took occasion, with great cordinity, to express entire satisfaction with the result, saying it was just what they expected. They are good horsemen, but lack skill with the mallet. They explain that they have been used to playing with horses instead of ponies, using shorter mailets, and guiding the horses by the neck, instead of the mouth, as is the custom in Buffalo. These disadvantages, together with the lack of sut, ficient time to practice with the ponies allotted to them, account to a large extent for the ineffectiveness of their playing to-day. The Woodstock gentlemen were obliged to leave for home to night, and, consequently, had to decline a complimentary dinner tendered them by the Buffalo Polo Club.

CRICKET.

MATCH-THE ENGLISHMEN STILL IN-A SCORE

OF 159 AND ONE WICKET TO FAIL. The grounds of the Staten Island Cricket Club were throughd yesterday by a large number of spec-tators to witness the second day's play of the inter-national cricket match between the Eleven of All England and the Twenty-two of New York. The former resumed their innings and at the close of the day five more wickets were down (making in all nine) for 100 runs, to a total of 67 for the United New York in its innings of Friday. Among the specia-tors were Mr. Charles Rowell, Mr. Atkinson, of the London Sporting Life, and Mr. Potter, the secretary of Sir John Astley. The stumps were drawn shortly efore five o'clock, and some of the English players amused themselves by acquiring a knowle baseball. A little match was improvised and was viewed with commendable interest by a large crowd of spectators. So proficient did the English players become that a baseball match with them was se-riously talked about. The cricket match will be re-

At twenty minutes past one P. M., Selby II and Shrewsbury 0, the two "not outs" resumed their places at the wickets. Lane opening the bowling. Selby at once cut him strongly for 2. Shrewsbury got Sprague to leg for a double and three maidens followed. Shrewabury cut Sprague through Bance followed. Shrewsbury cut Sprague through Bance for a single and three more maidens were put down. Selby was finally caught by Moeran at mid off, off Lane. His score of 25 included two 4's, three 3's and singles—59, 5, 25. Barnes joined Shrewsbury, and the following seven overs yielded 8 runs, as-sisted by bad fielding of Hooper and Woolston. With the score at 67, Sprague handed the ball to Soutter (first round). Shrewsbury then got a single sand commanding a magnificent view of Lake Eric, the Ningare River and the Landa shore. From that time to the present the require practice games have been continued, of the next eight overs. Lane bowling finely, the search of the present classes of people. The devotion to the game manifested by the members of the club under anch adverse circumstances is certainly worthy of high adverse correcting, the seatch of the control of the correction of the seatch of high to be persuaded to give it up. The result is that the game is pleased to the correction of the seatch o off Soutter on a fine late cut. Two runs were made off the next eight overs, Lane bowling finely.
